

- ▶ Global stock markets edged up with the Ibex 35 and the S&P 500 registering increases of 0.5 and 1 percent respectively.
- In fixed-income markets, yields on long term sovereign bonds decreased slightly in Europe with the exception of Italy, where political uncertainty continued to put pressure on yields. In the U.S., yields on the 10-year Treasury bonds nudged up and reached 3 percent.
- Oil prices registered a strong increase of more than 3 percent yesterday as tensions with Iran intensified. The barrel of Brent closed above $77, its highest level since the end of 2014.

Today investors will pay attention to the release of the April inflation data in the U.S. and to the meeting of the Bank of England.
